

Update from the TPSA Chair

Taroona Primary School features!

The TPSA Committee recently saw a copy of a thank you message to all DoE employees by the Secretary, Mr Tim Bullard. We were all thrilled to see how much the students and staff and our grounds featured in the video message. Click here to have a look yourself:

150 years of public education in Tasmania

As parents who have select a public education for your child, you might be interested to know that DoE is celebrating 150 years of public education. A number of ambassadors will play a role promoting the milestone and sharing their public education story. Have a closer look here:

Qkr for Uniforms

We continue to embed Qkr and now the Uniform Shop can be found online! Try Qkr for your next order but note that EFTPOS and cash are still available as payment options. Our sincere thanks to Carolyn McKinley, Uniform Shop Coordinator, for her commitment and effort in implementing Qkr as an additional payment method for parents.

Friday Canteen: Banjo's trial

In Term 4 we are running a trial, offering 3 bakery items from Banjo's Sandy Bay, in an expanded Friday Canteen menu. If your children are not crazy about sushi, order a Banjo's item instead and given yourself a break from lunch box duties. So far the cheese and vegemite scrolls is the popular pick. The items will only be offer in 2019 if well supported! Our thanks to Tracey Turner (Darcy and Lucas Eastall's mum) who is our new(ish) Friday Canteen Coordinator!

Volunteer afternoon tea

Save the date: if you volunteer in the School in any capacity, look forward to an invitation to the School's Thank You Afternoon Tea, Mon 10 Dec 2018.

Last meeting

The TPSA Committee will hold its last meeting for the year on Tuesday 11 December 2018. All parents are welcome.
